MAKE FOR A CLEAN CITY

It is a perfectly clean, smokeless fuel, easy to handle, burns readily, yet holds a fire for long periods.

It takes 2300 pounds of coal to make 2000 pounds (1 ton) of coke.

Since the bulk and heat units remain practically the same, you can readily see that a ton of coke takes up as much space in your bir as a ton and a balf space in your bin as a ton and a half of coal and will go just as far if you use it as we direct, hence the actual money saving in addition to having a mokeless fuel.

Domestic coke as it comes from the retorts is particularly valuable for use in furnaces, low pressure steam boilers, hot water heating systems, or any house heating appliance where coal has been used. Its special advantages are great economy, lightness and convenience in handling; cleanliness and freedom from smoke, soot, dirt and dust, its use absolutely does away with all cleaning of flues and chimneys. There are no foul games to go through the entire houses no soot or dust to blacken furniture or curtains; no fuel waste or sifting of ashes, and the fire can easily be handled by a woman if the man of the house is away.

We are anxious to have every customer get the best results with coke. For this reason we have special representatives, thoroughly experienced, whom we are gird to send without charge to instruct you or your fireman how to burn it properly to get all the results we claim for this wonderful
